PATRIOTIC EXPLOSION.

An Impromptu Demonstration to Gen. Fitzhugh Lee.

When the train carrying the special car in which rode General Fitzhugh Lee and staff reached Greensboro last evening at 7:25 a burst of enthusiasm such as was never before seen in this city greeted him.

The announcement of his coming had only been made a few hours, yet there was a tremendous crowd, numerous flags and a brass band at the depot to extend to him the greeting of the Old North State. The assembly was numbered, by what we take as conservative estimates, at from 5000 to 6000, and was composed of all classes and colors and all united in one hearty, long and loud round of cheers as the gallant Lee stepped out upon the platform.

"Speech, speech, speech," rang from a thousand throats and as soon as he could be heard the General said in part:

"My friends: I sincerely thank you for this splendid demonstration. I have joined the army now and am not much in the speech-making business. We are men of action now, not of words. I am happy to see so many of my North Carolina friends and to witness this outburst of patriotism and enthusiasm. We are engaged in a war now and whatever the differences of opinion regarding the necessity for it and the causes which led to it, I am quite sure we are all agreed that the war must be prosecuted to victory. Those who wore the blue and those who wore the grey are fighting together a united people for our flag and for our country against a foreign enemy. Again I thank you for this demonstration. I am only a soldier. I have been run out of Cuba and we are now going back to run somebody else out."

Every sentence was punctuated with loud cheers, and as the last words were uttered the train pulled out, the band played "Dixie," flags waved, hats went up and wild hurrahs and cheers rent the air.

General Lee stood on the platform as long as the train was in sight, and no doubt returned to his seat with increased determination and strength to prosecute vigorously the war of humanity.

THE ANNUAL SERMON.

Before the Graduating Class at G. F. College.

The commencement exercises of Greensboro Female College began this morning. After the singing of "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," Rev. L. W. Crawford, D. D., led the audience in prayer. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. N. H. D. Wilson. The annual sermon to the graduating class was preached by Rev. W. S. Creasy, D. D., of Winston. The theme of his sermon was that man is under a special Providence—that every human life is a Divine Providence. He proved in a very eloquent and stirring way (1) that man belongs to God because of creation—because he made him; that God is a far greater sculptor than man—that he gives the human structure life, feelings and thoughts; (2) that man belongs to God because of redemption; that after man was made by the Divine Sculptor he was stolen away by the devil and that Christ had to be given up for the redemption of the stolen stature; (3) that in consequence of belonging to God man owes Him the best of his body, mind and soul; that he has given man opportunities, pleasures, friends, and possessions; that everything man has been given him by God; (4) that man must get into the way of God and remain in that way before he can accomplish the purposes of his life; that those have succeeded best who have gotten into this way most; that the sculptor, painter, poet, man of business, society, and church must enter into the way of God and receive from his hands the guidance that is Divine before permanent success will crown their efforts. He then gave many illustrations of successful men and women who have lived in this Divine way.

The influence on the audience was marked and everybody left with the impression that the first day of commencement had been a decided success. After the sermon Rev. J. E. Gay led the audience in prayer and President Peacock made the announcements for tonight.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. H. Weaver, D. D.

MORE VOLUNTEERS CALLED.

Seventy-Five Thousand Additional Men Wanted.

CERVERA'S FLEET AT SANTIAGO.

Increasing Disorder at Key West. Will Rescue Americans—More Neutrality Proclamations.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 25—President McKinley this afternoon issued a call for seventy-five thousand more volunteers. The total number of volunteers called for by the president since the war began is now 200,000.

DISORDER AT KEY WEST.

Key West, May 25—The disorder here has increased so much that it has created a demand for the immediate establishment of martial law in the city. James J. Dercey, an expert machinist aged fifty-five, was found dead early this morning within half a block of Key West hotel. His head and face were so bruised as to be almost beyond recognition. He received his wages last night and this fact adds credence to the belief that he has been murdered for his money. This murder, coupled with murderous, probable fatal, assault on seaman William Carne, of the gunboat Morrill, has aroused general indignation. Only two policemen are on duty in the city and draw a salary of twenty-five dollars a month. Both of the policemen have notified the city authorities that they will resign their positions.

SPY CAPTURED.

Key West, May 25—Lieutenant Jimenez, one of the passengers of the Panama, which vessel was captured some time ago by the light house tender Mangrove, was arrested as a spy last night. He had on his person fifty-nine charts of different American harbors and tracings of numerous forts and the location of mines and torpedo the beds in harbor at New York

FINANCIAL SITUATION DESPERATE.

Madrid, May 15—The financial situation in the capital has become desperate. The cabinet ministers are making strenuous efforts to raise money from the populace. The cabinet freely admits that a loan from any foreign source is now impossible.

OFF TO RESCUE AMERICANS.

Hong Kong, May 25—The United States cruiser Baltimore and the Spanish prize Callao sailed from Manila to rescue Americans whom it is reported the Spaniards have captured. The Americans are on the Saranac which carries three thousand tons of coal.

SHAM BATTLE.

Chattanoogo, May 25—Thirty-five thousand volunteers today participated in a sham battle at Chickamauga.

MORE NEUTRAL COUNTRIES.

Washington, May 25—Russia, Greece, Venezuela, Netherlands and Canada have declared teemselves neutral in regard to the war between the United States and Spain.

UNKNOWN VESSEL ASHORE.

Centre Moriches, Long Island, May 25—A large steamship is ashore opposite this place. The nationality of the vessel is unknown.

ADULTERATION FOR FLOUR.

Offered a N. C. Manufacturer by a Crowd of N. C. Swindlers.

Capt. W. P. Oldham has received at his mill in this city a circular from a concern in Greensboro offering to sell him powdered talc with which to adulterate flour. The circular states the quantity of talc to be used in different qualities of flour and tells how impossible it is to detect it. Talc is much used and the circular holds out the fine opportunity there is to make money by adulterating flour with it.

The federal and state authorities should look after the swindlers. They violate the federal laws by using the mails for swindling, and the state laws provide severe punishment for adulterating food.—Wilmington Messenger.

Long Shot Wins.

ALUMNAE REUNION.

Address by Rev. E. A. Yates This Evening.

The Alumnae of Greensboro Female college have their reunion at the college this evening at 8:30. Rev. E. A. Yates, of Durham, will deliver the address. At the same time the art exhibit in the parlors on the first floor will be thrown open to visitors.

The exhibit will be open all day tomorrow. The marshals of the occasion will be:

Leila Gilchrist McGirt, chief; Lena Long, Marietta Haskins, Lizzie Hadley, Addie Latham, Grizzelle Burton, Catharine McArthur.

Managers—Maie Alice Carr, chief; Mary Harper, Mattie Lyon, Lula Pace, Myrtie Muse, Mattie Parham, Lottie Miller.

Dr. Brooks Appointed.

Dr. W. H. Brooks, of Greensboro, has been appointed assistant surgeon to the Second Regiment of North Carolina volunteers. It was a disappointment to his friends that he was not appointed surgeon to the regiment, seeing that as a surgeon he has few equals in the state and no superiors. At the late examination in Charlotte Dr. Brooks not only made the highest average of any man examined but the highest in the history of the state. A young man of high attainments in other directions and one who keeps thoroughly posted as to the latest and best methods in surgery the boys of the Second Regiment are to be congratulated on the appointment, if Dr. Brooks sees fit to accept. But we are frank to say we hope he will decline the appointment. He has begun a work here in the Astley Cooper hospital that is a necessity to the community and we should much prefer to see him stick to it. He has gone to Raleigh to take the appointment into consideration.

Watching for the Anglo-American Alliance—Philippine Chiefs to Assist Spain.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 25—President McKinley intimated today that the plans for the invasion of Cuba are no longer in abeyance. Secretary Alger also practically confirms the news of an early movement of the army of invasion. The ordnance department reports that it now has ample supplies of ammunition.

The first meeting of the joint commission to settle the Alaskan boundary dispute and fisheries question was held at the state department today. Canada is represented by Sir Julian Pauncefote and Sir Lewis Davies, the Canadian minister of Marine. America is represented by John A. Kasson, reciprocity commissioner, and John W. Foster, ex-secretary of state. Owing to the friendly relations between England and America the powers are watching the proceedings of the commission closely for any sign of the much discussed Anglo-American alliance.

Washington, May 25—It is positively asserted this morning that the Cape Verde fleet, under command of Admiral Cervera, is in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba and it is the intention of the administration to bottle this fleet in the harbor with one of the American fleets under command of Rear Admiral Sampson.

INVASION THIS WEEK.

Washington May 25—It is authoritatively asserted here today that the administration's plans are to hold Cervera in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba with Schley's squadron while Sampson will be ordered to bombard Havana. He tells a thrilling story of the daring voyage of the three ships from Bahia, Brazil, and of the constant and strict watch kept by Captain Clark to guard against any surprise from the Spaniards. The Oregon, Marietta and Buffalo were steered as far as possible out of the regular course of steamships in order to avoid meeting the enemy or any vessel friendly to Spain.

CAPTAIN OF CALLAO SHOT.

"LEST WE FORGET."

The young men who have gone from our homes to follow where Old Glory waves will be followed by our prayers and hopes. This stanza from Kipling's "Recessional" has particular significance at this time:

God of the nations, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.
—Morning Post.

And it has significance in a way quite apart from that intended by the Post. Thoughtful men, the Post among the rest, have not failed to note that we are entering upon a new era in our history—an era when more than ever before there is need of supreme guidance "lest we forget." In a sense a fate of which twelve months ago the common lot of us little recked has taken the nation to a mountain top and promised it "dominion over palm and pine"—appealing to that bull dog acquisitiveness of the Anglo-Saxon that has ever widened his sway, even from one small island to the fair face of half a world. We pledged our honor to the world that this battle we would fight for the good sake of our fellow humankind but already they who point the way are saying "what we get we shall keep." Shall it be so? Perhaps We stand at the parting of the ways; while inclination stirring in a newly awakened sense of national might joins with the trend of events to hurry us on the way that parts from the old. Goodly possessions in other climes, beyond our two seas, smile and beckon. Our "far flung battle line" swings eastward and westward many a thousand miles. Our soldiers on the quays at the Golden Gate face westward clamoring loudly enough to be hurried to battle and adventure in a west that melts into the east. Only a wisdom that can project itself through the to-be can grasp the outcome now. Southward of us lies dominion unlimited and there is none to say us nay whose nay must needs be final. If we shall break from our traditional policy where will the roused earth-hunger stop?

"Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget."

It is regretable that the news of the day is not more reliable but scarcely surprising when it is remembered that the warring governments do all in their power to keep from the public all movements of real interest and possibly both purposely allow false rumors to leak out. Nor are the governments themselves much better informed than the public. For a good many days the Washington administration did not know whether the Cape Verde squadron had returned to Cadiz or not. The news associations are kept from wiring any information that may be of use to the enemy and the field for the employment of the chance sea-captain, a proverbial liar, is consequently large and tempting. Nor have landsmen much room to cast stones when a signal gun off shore becomes a bombardment to his imagination. Old men will recall that the reports during the last war were quite as unreliable as at present. And the fighting was on land and in easy reach of telegraph offices.

To the many students of our educational institutions who are soon to go home for the holidays The Telegram wishes a pleasant vacation—as pleasant in the realization as in anticipation—and a return in the fall. For those whose school days are finished it hopes that no days may be less bright.

Senor Capdepon is the premium talker of the new cabinet. He arises, adjusts his cravat and his jaws and operations begin. He sets at rest the anxieties of a waiting world with the announcement that a decision has been reached. That is a distinct advance. Now hobble it so it can't get away.

According to the Hong Kong despatches as given yesterday all is not plain sailing for Dewey in those waters. Neverthless the facts are clear enough that he proposes to remain master of the situation while he remains at all. Apparently brag and bluster slide off him quite harmlessly.

"The war will not be confined to Cuba. What is to hinder us from taking our army to the United States some night and investing the capital at Washington next day?"—General Correa.

Oh, nothing at all. Send it along, Senor, we'll be glad to see it.

The rejection by the senate of the negro nominated to be postmaster at Scotland Neck was a good piece of work. Let the senate stick to its position. If colored men must be appointed to southern postmasterships let them be respectable colored men.

We felicitate the Charlotte Observer on its luminous exposition in yesterday's paper of the political conditions in this state and trust that the convention may see the wisdom of its advice and warning.

When it comes to the fist-shaking business France and England can vibrate their closed digits with the best of them—only they always explain afterward how it was all merely in fun.

The Rivrent Samivel has gone into eruption sure enough. He contents himself with attacking in one letter a judge, a congressman, Dr. Hoss and the American-Spanish war.

France now has all the war she can look after at home. The Zola trial has begun again and compressed air and superheated adjectives are at a premium.

The inhabitants of the Philippines are soon to taste the glories of American citizenship—General Merritt will take along a full-fledged tariff law.

Its a very dangerous business to be sending the Georgia militia out of the state in the midst of a warm gubernational canvas.

It is strange that Spaniards should use the word "Morro" so much. They seem to have plenty of other words.

The latest advices indicate that the destination of the Cadiz fleet is Cadiz.

So Tired! So Tired!

Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any oatural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

"Aguinaldo, the rebel commander-in-chief, brought down by the McCulloch, is organizing his forces near Cavite, and may render assistance that would be valuable."

Bagley Carried $7,000 Insurance.

Ensign Worth Bagley, who met his death in the engagement at Cardenas, showed his loyalty to his mother as well as to his flag. He carried, since May 21, 1895, a life insurance policy of $2000, and on April 20 of this year he obtaiend another policy of $5000. His mother is the beneficiarcy under both policies. The $5000 policy was issued only one day before the special war rate on new insurance of one single extra cash premium, equal to 5 per cent. of the face of the insurance, went into effect. An officer of the company has made the statement that the $7000 would be paid to the sorrowing beneficiary forthwith.—Morning Post.

Going Home.

All the trains going out of Greensboro today carried large numbers of young ladies from the Normal College. Many of them had one or two extra cars for the benefit of the students. The depot all day was an indescribable jumble of trunks and the baggage men heaved and perspired and occasionally swore softly but emphatically. There were checks lost of course and trunks that did not arrive in time and trunks that could not be found and there was much feminine worry and perturbation. In some mysterious way though they got off, full of the fun the summer vacation is to bring.

A number of the young ladies remain at the college until tomorrow for more leisurely and comfortable opportunities of departing.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Literary Societies' Entertainment.

The literary societies of the Normal college gave their annual entertainment yesterday evening. The hall was packed to the suffocation point and the police were 'phoned for to keep any additional people from going up to the hall. The entertainment was highly pleasing as reported by those who saw it—the policemen arrived before the Telegram reporter; the crowd and the heat also arrived in advance. It is a great pity the college has not a larger hall for commencement purposes as the present one is wholly inadequate to the demands made upon it. The exercises last night included a play and some drills. The costuming was excellent and the characters were very well sustained.

Eclectic Debate.

The Eclectic society of the A. & M. college debated the question: "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished." The negative won. The exercises included "The Star Spangled Banner," eight voices, which was loudly applauded by the audience.
